

This Is just what I expected from you butt heads Something is working just fine. the privacy of my home was safe for a while No idiot calling me up on Saturday or Sunday disturbing the peace of my home to sell me anything from grave sites to credit cards
My family could sit down to a nice meal and not be disturbed by a Telemarketer.
But no you can't leave well enough alone. You have to try to screw it up! LEAVE IT ALONE!
